Every member of the family will find here something suited to his years and fancy. A story for little girls, one for boy scouts, a story for grown-ups, a word of advice about giving, a meditation and some personal reminiscences of Christmas in Kansas make up the volume. The book is attractively gotten up making a fit setting for the stories, which are interesting, wholesome and should foster the Christmas spirit. That they are conventional and rather preachy will probably be no objection to those to whom they appeal.
