Bel-Ami (French Edition) Guy de Maupassant

GUY DE MAUPASSANT (1850-93), est né au château de Miromesnil, dans la commune de Tourville-sur-Arques, Seine Maritime. Fut disciple de Flaubert et membre du groupe naturaliste formé autour de la figure de Zola. Son premier succès littéraire fut le récit « Boule de suif », une histoire de la guerre franco-prussienne, suivie de centaines d'autres dont les personnages sont principalement des paysans de sa Normandie natale, ou bien des employés civils, des aristocrates, des prostitués, des soldats et racontées avec un style simple et direct. Il est aussi l'auteur de six romans, parmi lesquels figure « Bel-Ami », qui raconte l'étonnante ascension sociale d'un personnage séducteur et arriviste nommé Georges Du Roy de Cantel, employé de bureau aux chemins de fer et parvenu aux sommets de la société parisienne, en partie grâce à ses maitresses. Ce qui émerge est la satire d'une société de la finance, minée par les scandales produits par la collusion entre le monde de l'argent et la politique.
