Taci, e suona la chitarra. Milano rock ottanta (Italian Edition) Achille Maccapani

Tre vicende esistenziali, tre solitudini che confluiscono in una rock band a Milano. Un trio, basato sulla combinazione chitarra-basso-batteria, che ha avuto quali punti di riferimento, nella storia del rock, esempi celebri quali i Cream, i Rush e i Police. Milano, Darfo Boario e Ventimiglia: queste le località di origine dei tre musicisti che uniscono le proprie energie per creare una nuova esperienza musicale tra le cantine e le sale prova di una città conservatrice e poco disponibile ad accettare, nei primi anni Ottanta, un altro modo di fare musica. Steve Ray, Axel e Luciano si trovano così a combattere soli contro tutti. Contro le major discografiche italiane, il sistema televisivo e dell'informazione, nemici di un rock grintoso, emergente, carico di tanta rabbia. E riescono, a colpi di demo, concerti, fallimenti di piccole etichette, recensioni sulle fanzine, studi di registrazione, rock festival, ad avvicinarsi al miraggio del successo. Ma un imprevisto, una scheggia impazzita, una sorpresa inaspettata sconvolgerà la vita della band, per giungere così all'inevitabile epilogo.
