Sharawadji Brian Henderson

Nominated for the CAA Award for Poetry [Canadian Authors Association]

A renowned poet lets language ride its own musically-malleable syntax into unfamiliar regions of consciousness.

Brian Henderson has established himself as a poet who brilliantly makes us aware of language as an instrument of discovery. In his work we realize, over and over again, that each of the mind's worlds speaks a secret language, which it is the poet's task to discover and translate. In Sharawadji, this includes not only such worlds as those created by the surreal paintings of Jacek Yerka, but the intense, re-humanizing experience of loss and grief.
