Raindrops On Roses: Garden of Love, Book Ten

"Raindrops On Roses" is a collection of four short stories (novellas). For those who have read "Bring Me Flowers" (Book 5), some of the characters in these stories will be familiar. Story descriptions are as follows.

Forever Friends:

Anna and Josh have been friends since the eighth grade. But as young adults, a new time for them is beginning. Will they fall in love with others and go their separate ways, or will they decide it's time to go beyond friendship with each other?

Wait For Me:

At the age of thirty-three, Julie doesn't mind her life of singleness, but when she finally meets the one she wants to spend her life with, she wonders if it can ever be. Danny says he loves her, but when he has to leave for a time, will he return for her like he promised?

Something Beautiful:

Following a broken engagement, Karen has shut down her heart toward men. She doesn't want to hurt anyone like that ever again. But when someone new begins to invade her heart, can she figure out if she really loves him before it's too late?

Dance With Me:

With two months of his college days remaining, Nathan is anxious to see where God will lead him. Heading for Oregon during Spring Break, he wonders if a girl he once knew will be there. Where is Janie now, and why can't he stop thinking about her?

*Raindrops On Roses is the tenth book in the Garden of Love series and may be read individually or as a sequel to Book 5. Some characters from Book 9 (Violets Are Blue) are also revisited. Recommended for women and older teen girls, ages 16 and up.
