David Wallace the ultimate hot shot quarterback is the star of his college team. He's irresistible and untouchable and he knows it. David has everyone eating out of the palm of his hand, including his coaches...

Until the day he meets someone that shows him who's boss.

Mike, a former football legend takes a coaching job in Indiana in an attempt to run away from his life that fell apart in Seattle. What he didn't bargain for was running head first into the hottest most arrogant player in the division.

What starts as a clash of alpha male egos and a testing of each other's limits soon grows into an explosive chemistry that makes them both question who they are and what's most important to them.

Mike knows that David is off limits because he's his subordinate and he's straight. But when the coach and player bond blossoms into something neither of them expected will they be willing to break the rules of the game to win each other's heart?

TouchDown is a stand alone romance with a HEA no cliff hanger

Due to explicit content this story is intended for mature audiences
