Lawyer for the Little Guy Joseph Kafka

Trial is a month away and closing fast on young lawyer, Jake Beck. The scumbag who ripped off his client for one million dollars will get what's coming to him if Jake has anything to do about it. It's a tough case when your client is fair and decent and the defendant is hard and mean. And when he's a lawyer. And the brother of your client. Jake's first trial has him facing impossible odds and great obstacles. But the underdog wins some of the time, right? Jake's wisecracking boss, the judge for his case, and even his client have their doubts. Still, it's not all legal work and no play when Jake falls for a hot, brainy blonde and she introduces him to her "adopted" Greek family. Maddy is an eco-minded Santa Cruz, California girl right down to her electric car, organic diet, and yoga classes. The Greeks enjoy life, laugh often, and cook up a storm. Jake embraces their love and support during the darkest times in his pursuit of justice for the little guy.

In order to meet your expectations for a pleasurable reading experience, and the author's own standards, this novel was professionally edited and proof-read. It was also professionally converted to the Kindle ebook format.
