Rachele litiga con Dio (Lampi) (Italian Edition) Stefan Zweig

Uomini empi e pagani scacciano Dio dai loro templi provocandone la furia e la vendetta, per poi chiedergli invano il perdono. Solamente una donna, Rachele, riesce a far ascoltare la propria voce. Attraverso il racconto della sua storia di moglie paziente, protettrice dei figli, simbolo della perseveranza, ella ricorda al Signore i propri infiniti patimenti e come, in nome della misericordia divina, abbia saputo perdonare. Un giovane pellegrino vuole incontrare a ogni costo il Messia, di cui ha così tanto sentito parlare. Sfiancato dal lungo viaggio per raggiungere Gerusalemme, trova rifugio in una casa dove una donna lo tenta e lo fa ritardare nel suo cammino. Intanto sulla collina Ponzio Pilato ha già preparato la croce per compiere il crimine più celebre della Storia... Così Stefan Zweig, con questi due racconti dal titolo Rachele litiga con Dio e Il pellegrinaggio, mostra le due facce della fede: la tolleranza e la crudeltà, il peccato e la pia pazienza, l'attesa eterna e la tracotante incostanza.
