The Upside-Down Kingdom Kylee Pedersen

THE UPSIDE-DOWN KINGDOM is a photojournalistic journey following a team of young Canadian missionaries in a Burundian Refugee camp in Rwanda, during the Burundian political crisis. A selection of journal entries, emails, poems, and photos seek to showcase the individuals' struggles with poverty, privilege, injustice, and the existence of faith through it all. It is their sincere hope that this book would raise awareness, with proceeds going to HOPEthiopia, an NGO that continues to work with marginalized people in these regions.
