TROUBLE BREWING

Mart Joliffe and his pa owned the Tincup cattle ranch high in the Colorado storm country, up near the Utah border. When sheep rancher John Robineau moved his sheep herd onto Tincup graze land, trouble wasn't far behind. And even though the blood spilled wasn't human and the Tincup was in the right, Mart still felt guilty about what had happened. But that was nothing compared to what still lay ahead. Lies, betrayal and more bloodshed were all coming to the Tincup, just as sure and deadly as an approaching storm.
