In this classic text the authors examine the links between racism, psychological ill health and inadequate treatment of ethnic minorities. Through a series of case studies they discuss:

- * the psychological legacy of colonialism and slavery
- * the racist bias in psychiatric and psychological theory
- * diagnostic bias
- * the role of religion in mental health or illness
- * the value of anthropological and psychoanalytic insights.

The concluding chapter in this edition reviews the development of 'transcultural psychiatry' and summarises changes in administration of the Mental Health Act.
