The streets are a dangerous place for young runaways. PI Hera Hunter knows. She's been there. So when Paperback Rose falls to her death and the police call it a suicide, Hera is skeptical. Calamity Jane, another street urchin, insists that Rose was not alone when she fell. Hera isn't sure she believes Jane since the girl's a thief, pickpocket, liar, and peeping Tom. But when Rose's parents hire her to determine what happened to their daughter, Hera soon finds that she must discover the evil lurking in her town that gives reason for throwing a child off the top of a three-story tenement house.
