Come diventare felici con la Divina Commedia

Terzo quaderno. In cosa consiste la vera felicità. Il Paradiso

Argomento della terza cantica è il regnum coelorum, di cui fanno parte gli uomini buoni che hanno superato il loro piccolo io in una dimensione universale e spirituale. Da cosa si riconoscono i buoni, come affrontano le avversità, come le trasformano a favore degli altri, come agiscono per rendere migliore il mondo in cui vivono? L'autrice rivisita i cieli del Paradiso con un'ottica pragmatica e analizza i personaggi celesti per individuare le qualità e le virtù che da sempre contraddistinguono la migliore umanità. L'analisi del testo privilegia il simbolo come chiave della comprensione dei cieli, rivelandone i molti significati e le innumerevoli risonanze; viene inoltre indagata la relazione tra i sette pianeti e le Arti liberali, già segnalata da Dante nel Convivio. In tal modo si fa luce sulla rete nascosta che sorregge e dà senso al mondo celeste, che risulta in verità molto più umano e palpabile di quanto si possa immaginare.
