"Heavenly Father, are you really there?" As Latter-day Saints, we know God exists, but at some point we may wonder, "Heavenly Father, are you really there for me?" When trials seem beyond our ability to bear, some people lose their spiritual bearings, while others are made even stronger. How can we strengthen our faith and deepen our testimony to the point that we can endure whatever life holds in store for us and come out strong than before? In this unique book, Gerald N. Lund:

Reminds us of how much God loves His children and that He is anxious to bless them, especially when they are striving to do His will.

Teaches that God often sends blessings in such a highly unusual, dramatic, or precisely timed manner that it's as if the Lord "signs" the blessing personally so we know with certainty that it came from Him.

Relates stories from Church history, from his own life, and from acquaintances that illustrate the inspiring and life-changing insights he shares.
