Hombres de escena, hombres de libro (Spanish Edition) Ferdinando Taviani

Este libro ofrece una visión del teatro italiano del siglo XX, de sus mejores textos y de sus espectáculos. El autor opera una selección exigente y la expone vinculándola a una teoría interpretativa global, que le permite plantear con originalidad un horizonte articulado del conjunto. El lector encontrará una abundantísima y rigurosa información, que comprende casi una guía de autores y obras. En él constan junto a los clásicos contemporáneos como Pirandello, una re-valorización de excelentes actores-autores de teatros dialectales como los napolitanos Raffaele Viviani y Eduardo De Filippo, así como las grandes aportaciones italianas del siglo al estudio y la crítica teatrales. Todo ello, enmarcado con pinceladas de historia cultural, reflexiones teóricas y antropológicas y sin descuidar las aportaciones y la relevancia de los maestros europeos en el panorama italiano.
