Las existencias frágiles: Cuentos (Spanish Edition) Alejandro Ovalles Bonilla

No quiero que esta historia se lea como un relato de ficción, de hecho no lo es, es más bien un testimonio. Es terrible la palabra testimonio, en este país suena a víctimas y a reparaciones. Estuve a su lado desde que empezó a presenciar las imágenes, lo acompañé en su desesperación inicial y en la plenitud que sobrevino a la angustia. Así las cosas no puedo jugar con la presentación de los hechos, sembrar datos aislados, ocultar información; aquí no puedo suponer que desconocía la muerte de un sujeto inventado por mí mismo para hacer más amable el relato, o para sorprender al lector con la noticia de su muerte en el momento más feliz de su vida.

Pienso que este arranque de honestidad podría desembocar en una historia clínica que niega toda posibilidad de ser feliz. Max era joven y su muerte fue lenta, desgarradora y convulsa. Definitivamente podría evitar avanzar hasta su muerte y falsear el final, permitir el acceso que él estaba seguro de alcanzar; podría, de algún modo, recobrarlo para la vida, no para ésta sino para aquella que intentaba alcanzar cuando murió.

(Fragmento de "La intervención del espejo")
