Festivals, Tourism and Social Change: Remaking Worlds Mike Robinson, David Picard

This book explores the links between tourism and festivals and the various ways in which each mobilises the other to make social realities meaningful. Drawing upon a series of international cases, festivals are examined as ways of responding to various forms of crisis - social, political, economic - and as a way of re-making and re-animating spaces and social life. Tourism is increasingly complicit in the festival processes of re-invention, and in forming new patterns of social existence.
