Hillock Park (Spanish Edition) Jane Kelder

Danford, Inglaterra, siglo XIX. En el momento en que los sindicatos mineros empiezan a presionar en leyes de protección laboral, Sarah y Katherine Larson ven cómo su mundo se desmorona. Su padre murió hace pocos meses y dejó Hillock Park, su hogar, en herencia a un sobrino quien ha vendido la propiedad. Y por eso las hermanas se ven obligadas a ir a vivir con su tía Bertha, que cree que lo mejor es buscarles un marido que les asegure el futuro.

El nuevo propietario de Hillock Park es John Doyle, un nuevo rico, que también acaba de comprar una mina y está despertando rumores en la ciudad porque ha mejorado las condiciones laborales de sus trabajadores. Por otro lado, las obras que está realizando en Hillock Park escandalizan a la familia Larson y le ponen en el punto de mira de la alta sociedad. Junto a Doyle han llegado a Danford, el abogado Tyler y el doctor Fischer con un proyecto en común que removerá los sedimentos de la estricta división de clases sociales, y que involucrará a las hermanas Larson, también.
