Cielos de ira (Novela Historica (roca)) (Spanish Edition) María Martínez

Una vertiginosa novela de heroísmo, pasión, espionaje e intriga que recrea operaciones secretas que cambiaron el curso de la historia universal. Durante la Segunda Guerra Mundial, el servicio de inteligencia británico intercepta un mensaje que revela que Hitler planea construir un arma de destrucción masiva en España. Para concretar este objetivo, un teniente español y un coronel alemán se reúnen en San Juan de Luz (Francia). Silvia Duque Vauchel, hija del teniente español y activista de la resistencia francesa, recibe el encargo de robarle los planos del arma a su padre, aunque para conseguirlo tenga que poner en peligro las vidas de ambos. Por otro lado, el Reino Unido también ha puesto en marcha su propia operación de contraespionaje: envía al mayor Raine Grant a San Juan de Luz con la misión de obtener los planos secretos y ejecutar a ambos militares.

Cielos de ira, es mucho más que el relato de estos actos heroicos y decisiones titánicas: es un viaje a la comprensión sobre la actuación de algunos hombres y mujeres que se vieron arrinconados por la barbarie y la guerra, a la vez que por las enormes esperanzas depositadas en ellos.
