CIA analyst Rhonda White has just received her first field assignment--find out who the strange man is hanging around known arms dealers in New York City. The closer Rhonda gets to the truth, the more she uncovers mysteries and horrors that go beyond her understanding. Why does everyone the man comes in contact with end up dead? More importantly, why do they come back a day later, covered blood and gore, wielding guns and knives, murdering people in broad daylight? What is the white powder being sold on the black market, and how does its existence threaten the very safety of people all around the world?

From the author of the cult classic The Summer I Died comes a new take on political terror like you've never read before.

"Enemy Unseen is the absolute stand-out story...that renders the old-fashioned voodoo zombie completely terrifying again." - ZombieFictionReview
