She's got the heat. He's got the kitchen. Together, they've got trouble cookin'.

Maggie Donnelly has problems no Food Network star ever had to deal with. Her coffee shop is running in the red, her EPT just turned pink, and keeping her business partners in line is making her blue in the face. A run-in with her old cooking school nemesis is the last thing she needs.

Kevin Best is a blast from the past with more than Maggie's mouth-watering recipes on his mind. He knows he made one big mistake with her, but she's got no idea just how far he'll go to put her heart back on the menu.

When Maggie loses her shop to a fire, and her partners to a stupid mistake, she's forced to turn to Kevin to help her win a contest that could save her bacon. Friendless, desperate—and with the proverbial bun in the oven—it's a choice that could change the rest of her life. If she can learn to love again.

What's the old saying about too many cooks? Maggie's about to find out...the hard way.
