Astrid Llewelyn is now a fully trained unicorn hunter, but she can't solve all her problems with just a bow and arrow. Her boyfriend, Giovanni, has decided to leave Rome, the Cloisters is in dire financial straits, her best friend's powers seem to be mysteriously disintegrating, and Astrid can't help but feel that school, home, and her hopes of becoming a scientist are nothing but impossible dreams.

So when she's given the opportunity to leave the Cloisters and put her skills to use as part of a scientific quest to discover the Remedy, Astrid leaps at the chance. Finally, she can have exactly what she wants—or can she? At Gordian headquarters, deep in the French countryside, Astrid begins to question everything she thought she believed: her love for Giovanni, her loyalty to the Cloisters, and—most of all—her duty as a hunter. Should Astrid be saving the world from killer unicorns, or saving the unicorns from the world?

Leslie Mickle:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's internal or real their pastime. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Ascendant can make you really feel more interested to read.
