Japan an Invitation Raymond Furse

This Japan travel pictorial takes readers on a colorful journey across the many regions of this fascinating country.

Over 130 color photographs reveal the many facets of Japan, capturing its many hues and shapes, from the quiet of a neighborhood shop to the frenzy of crowded festivals, the ornate structures of an ancient shrine to the simple contours of terraced rice fields, and the energy of judo to the repose of Noh.

Accompanying these photographs is author Raymond Furse's insightful writing on a range of topics. With thoughtfulness and a sharp eye, he presents an introduction to Japan's history, language, culture, religion, and art.

With its stunning photographs and lucid prose, this volume is the perfect invitation to Japan for both residents and those encountering this enchanting country for the very first time.
